

T If I Was Your Girl, Meredith Russo.

Amanda starts over in a new school (where no-one knows her secret) and complicates things by falling in love.

L Read Me Like A Book, Liz Kessler.

Ashleigh deals with a messy home life, the stresses of sixth form and confusing feelings.

B Far From You, Tess Sharpe.

Complex and emotional thriller as Sophie investigates Mina's death which only she knows to be murder.

Weekly reading recommendations

Theme for the week: LGBT+ History Month

G Simon vs The Homo Sapiens Agenda, Becky Albertalli.

Simon has been swapping flirty emails with an anonymous boy at his school. But who is he? Worse, the emails become blackmail fodder.

Radio Silence, Alice Oseman.

Frances appears to be a study machine but is secretly obsessed by a podcast. Her world changes when she meets its creator, Alex. This book represents a range of sexualities and identities.

For more recs, see @QueerYA