

Asking For It, Louise O' Neill.

Emma O'Donovan is eighteen years old, beautiful, happy, confident. One night, there's a party. Everyone is there. All eyes are on Emma.

The next morning, she wakes on the front porch of her house. She can't remember what happened, she doesn't know how she got there. She doesn't know why she's in pain. But everyone else does. There are photographs online.

Things a Bright Girl Can Do, Sally Nicholls

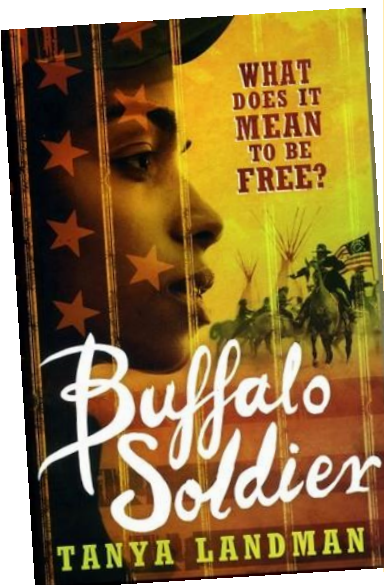

Three very different girls and their involvement in the Suffragette movement.

Alternating chapters tell their interlinked stories from their perspectives.

HOW TO START A FEMINIST REVOLUTION:

1. Call out anything that is unfair on one gender
2. Don't call out the same thing twice (so you can sleep and breathe)
3. Always try to keep it funny
4. Don't let anything slide. Even when you start to break...
